

Professor Lee Knefelkamp

Educational Background

B.A., Macalester College; M.A., Ph.D., University of Minnesota

Scholarly Interests

Theories and concepts of intercultural communications. The multi-cultural self in organizations. Teaching to cognitive and cultural complexities in social-organizational psychology. The design of effective learning communities. Feminist pedagogy, theory, and research. Intellectual and ethical development. Diversity in the organizational context.

Selected Publications

- Integrating Jewish Issues into the Teaching of Psychology (with Beck and Goldberg, American Psychological Association)
- Workbook for the Practice-to-Theory Model (American College Personnel Association).
- New Directions in Higher Education: Applying New Developmental Findings (Jossey-Bass).
- "Higher education and the consumer society", "Seasons of academic life: Honoring our collective autobiography", "The multi-cultural curriculum and communities of peace" (Liberal Education).
- "Education for a world lived in common with others" (Education and Democracy, College Board).

